The Living of the Sons of God in Being Conformed to the Image of the Firstborn Son of God by the Shaping Function of the Law of the Spirit of Life

Scripture Reading: Rom. 8:2, 14, 29

- I. God's goal in His economy is to produce many sons for His corporate expression; for this, we need to be conformed to the image of Christ as the firstborn Son of God—Rom. 8:14, 29; Gal. 3:26; 4:5-7; Heb. 2:10; Rev. 21:7.
- II. Conformation, which is higher than transformation, denotes the shaping of life—Rom. 8:29; 12:2:
  - A. Transformation involves a change in form, whereas conformation involves the shaping of this form into a certain image—the image of Christ as the firstborn Son of God—8:29.
  - B. To be conformed to the image of the firstborn Son of God is to be saved in life from self-likeness, that is, from the expression, the appearance, of the self—Rom. 5:10:
    1. The expression of the self is self-likeness; we all need to be saved in the life of Christ from such an expression.
    2. When we have been saved from our self-likeness and have been fully conformed to the image of Christ as the firstborn Son of God, we will be sons of God in reality, and in every respect we will bear the appearance of God's sons—Heb. 2:10.
  - C. In order to be conformed to the image of the firstborn Son for God's corporate expression, we need to be delivered from peculiarity; peculiarity, the final expression of our natural life, is our biased and warped characteristics—1 John 3:2.
- III. God will attain His goal of having a corporate expression of Himself by dispensing Himself into us as the law of the Spirit of life to make us the reproduction of the firstborn Son of God—Rom. 8:2, 29:
  - A. The firstborn Son of God is the prototype, the standard model, for the mass reproduction of the many sons of God, who are His many brothers, to constitute His Body for God's corporate expression—1:4; 8:14, 29; 12:4-5.
  - B. God's way to make us the reproduction of the firstborn Son of God is to work His living prototype, the firstborn Son, into our being—Eph. 3:16-17a.
  - C. The firstborn Son of God, as the indwelling prototype, automatically works within us as the law of the Spirit of life to conform us to His image—Rom. 8:2, 29.
- IV. The function of the law of the Spirit of life is to shape us, to conform us to the image of Christ as the firstborn Son of God—Rom. 8:2, 29:
  - A. The law of the Spirit of life regulates the shape of life; this shaping function of the law of the Spirit of life requires the growth of life, for the law of the Spirit of life functions only as life grows.

- B. The shaping by the law of the Spirit of life is the meaning of conformed in Romans 8:29.
- C. Eventually, through the function of the law of the Spirit of life, we all will become mature sons of God, and God will have His corporate expression—Rev. 21:7, 10-11.
- D. As the divine life grows within us and transforms us, the law of the Spirit of life functions spontaneously to conform us to the image of Christ, the firstborn Son of God—8:2, 29:
  - 1. We are to be conformed to the image of God's firstborn Son, Christ as the first God-man, that we may be a group of God-men who are exactly like Him—1 John 3:2.
  - 2. Through conformation, God will obtain the corporate expression of His firstborn Son with His many sons to accomplish His eternal purpose—Eph. 3:11.
